

like or as?

We use LIKE to ask for information or descriptions about someone or something:

What's he like? He's very kind.

We use LIKE to say that something is similar or someone has a similar appearance:

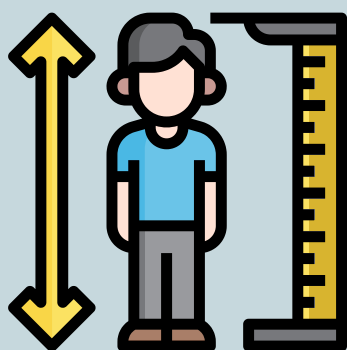

She looks like Julia Roberts.

We use LIKE to make a comparison:
He sings like an angel.

We use AS to talk about a job or function:
I'm working as a web designer at the moment.

We use (NOT) AS ... AS to make comparisons:
John is not as tall as his brother.
Is the film as good as you expected?
